KANGRA: THE LAND OF TEMPLES

- 1. Brajeshwari Mata Temple (5 Kms): This temple was built by Pandavas at the behest of Goddess Durga. Legend says that after Goddess Sati sacrificed herself Lord Vishnu divided her body into 51 parts and her left breast fell at this spot thus making it a Shaktipeeth.
- 2. Baijnath Shiva Temple (45 Kms): History says that Lord Shiva is present in the form of Shiva Linga here which was established here by Ravana and worshipped to achieve immortality.
- 3. Jawalamukhi Mata Temple (35 Kms): An ancient temple also mentioned in Mahabharata and other scriptures. There is a natural cave where eternal flames continues to burn.
- 4. Masroor Rock cut Temple (40 Kms): These early 8th century temples were carved out of monolithic rock and provided with a sacred pool of water as recommended by Hindu texts on the temple architecture.
- 5. Chamunda Devi Temple (15 Kms): The place where two great demons 'Chand' and 'Mund' were killed by goddess Kali.
- 6. Chintpurni Mata mandir (55 Kms): Mata mandir is a prominent pilgrimage center & one of the 7 major Shakti Peethas in India. It is believed that Mata Sati's head fell at this place & is thus considered one of the most important Shakti Peethas.

TOURIST ATTRACTIONS

DHARAMSHALA

One of the best places in India to beat the heat during the summer season. It is famous for numerous Buddhist Monasteries. It has one of the most beautiful International cricket stadiums in the world surrounded with picturesque snow clad Dhauladhar Range.
